

10 Stage Transition Journey to Adult Services for Young People with Complex Needs

11 years +
Identify young person needing transition

Empower CYP to develop self-care
skills

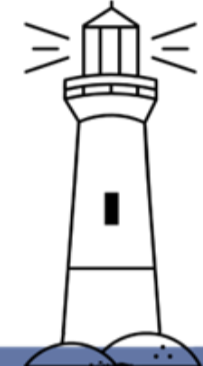

1

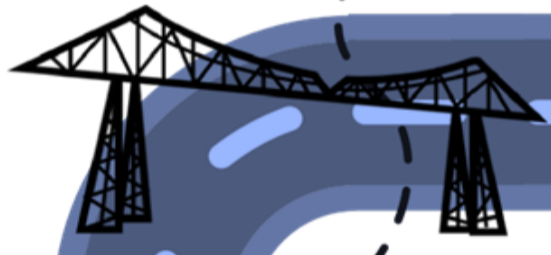

2

3

Joint review-children's services leading

Start
transition
plan

6

5

Refer to lead
adult service/GP

4

Review the multidisciplinary team

7

Plan a route
into urgent
care

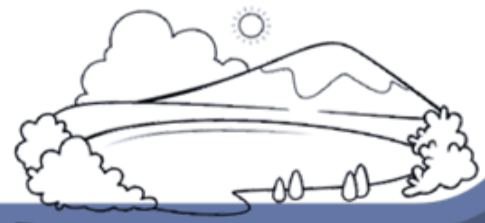

8

Young person confident to move to adult
services

9

Joint
reviews-
adult
services
leading

10

Young person settled into adult services

Developmentally Appropriate Healthcare Transition for people with complex needs is a needs-led approach to support people who are open to 2 or more healthcare services (or who have been open to 2 or more services) and who may have other additional needs (including education, social care, emotional and mental health needs)